Maciel Norman & Asociados (M, N & A) is an international full-service law firm, which covers all major practice areas and, in particular, has a well known practice in aviation law. This includes a long-standing reputation in sales and lease agreements as well as in aircraft, engines and spare parts financing. Also advises on regulatory matters, such as air transport licenses and operating permits, ticketing and conditions of carriage, passenger and cargo claims, litigation on these matters, governmental relations, bilateral air service negotiations, tax, customs, and insurance matters among others. The firm's aviation department is made up of 8 attorneys who take care of the above mentioned areas of practice and it also publishes a quarterly aviation newsletter for the information of its clients on local events in the industry.
